Title: Los Angeles Times Poll: San Diego Mayoral Primary Election

Survey Organizations: Los Angeles Times

Field Dates: May 21 - 22, 1992

Sample: Adult residents of San Diego, California

Sample Size: 725

Interview Modes: Telephone Interview

Weight Location: Card 2, Columns 7-11 (xx.xxx)

Usage Notes: Most questions were asked of a registered voters sample of 526. Some questions, which use only 1 column for data, allow legitimate punches for 10 & 11.
10 will correspond to 'X' in the data file and 11 will correspond to 'Y' in the data file.

Please note that data provided by the Roper Center for Public Opinion Research may not be re-disseminated without written permission. The results of any analyses conducted on the data may, however, be published with appropriate acknowledgments and source citation.

This Los Angeles Times poll is the 283rd in a series of opinion studies designed to measure public attitudes on a number of critical issues. This particular survey focuses on the upcoming San Diego mayoral primary election and ballot measures, Prop A and F.

The sampling frame for this survey is all telephone residences in city of San Diego. Five hundred twenty-six registered voters were contacted by telephone May 21-22, 1992. Of those 261 were identified as likely to vote in the June 2 mayoral primary. Results are adjusted to conform with census figures on characteristics such as sex, age, race, education and household size. Telephone numbers were generated from a computer list that includes all telephone exchanges in the city. Interviewing was conducted in either English or Spanish. Random-digit dialing techniques were used to ensure that both listed and unlisted residences had an opportunity to be contacted.

Readers are reminded that, since survey research normally questions only a small proportion of the population, one must allow a certain margin for error. The margin of sampling error for all registered voters is plus or minus five percentage points. The error margin for other subgroups may be somewhat higher. For example, the error margin on the sample of likely voters is plus or minus seven perecentage points.

Surveys of this kind are sometimes subject to different kinds of inaccuracies for which precise estimates cannot be calculated and which may, in some cases, be even larger than the effects associated with sampling procedures. For example, findings may be influenced by events which take place while the survey is in the field and, of course, events occurring since the time the interviews were conducted could have changed the opinions reported here. Undetected flaws in the way the sampling and interviewing procedure were carried out could have a significant effect on the findings. Changing the wording of questions and the sequence in which they are asked can produce different results. Sometimes questions are inadvertently biased or misleading. And people who responded to the survey may not necessarily replicate the views of those who refused to be interviewed or who could not be found at home during the time the survey was conducted. Moreover, while every precaution has been taken to make these findings completely accurate, other errors may have resulted from the various practical difficulties associated with taking any survey of public opinion.

The Los Angeles Times Poll is directed by John Brennan, under the general supervision of Assistant Managing Editor Martin Baron. Susan Pinkus is the assistant director, Roger Richardson is the field supervisor, Jill Milburn is the systems analyst and Claudia Vaughn is the data coordinator.

QUESTION TITLE : Vote For Prop F LOCATION : CARD 1, COL(S) 52
ABBV (MNEMONIC) : VOTEF DATA TYPE : 1: Small Integer
QUESTION NUMBER : Q26 SURVEY / INDEX NUMBER : 0283/45

If passed, Proposition F will prevent the Mt. Soledad cross from being removed. Those in favor of the Proposition say that the cross is a historical site of importance to the people of San Diego. They also argue that it is a War Memorial dedicated to soldiers who have died. Those opposed to Proposition F say the cross is a religious symbol on government property which violates the constitutional separation between church and state. They also say that the cross is offensive to those who are not Christian.

26. Based on what you know, if the June 2 election were being held today, would you be inclined to vote for Proposition F or would you be inclined to vote against it? (ACCEPT 'HAVEN'T HEARD ENOUGH' AND 'WOULDN'T VOTE' AS VOLUNTEERED RESPONSES) (IF HAVEN'T HEARD ENOUGH OR NOT SURE) Well, as of today do you lean more toward voting for it or lean toward voting against it?

QUESTION TITLE : Vote For Prop A LOCATION : CARD 1, COL(S) 55
ABBV (MNEMONIC) : VOTEA DATA TYPE : 1: Small Integer
QUESTION NUMBER : Q29 SURVEY / INDEX NUMBER : 0283/50

Those in favor of Proposition A say that it would create more turnover in city offices, thus helping to provide new leadership for the city. They also say that term limits would produce more competitive campaigns because no one would have the advantages incumbents have when they seek reelection. Those opposed to Proposition A say that limiting voters' ability to choose candidates violates voters' civil rights. They also contend that there is already much turnover in city offices, making the proposition unnecessary.
